

2014 Congressional Art Competition

Official Competition Rules

- Open to high school students only
- Artwork must be two-dimensional, but may include any of the following medias
  - Paintings: oil, acrylics, watercolor, etc.
  - Drawings: pastels, colored pencils, pencil, charcoal, ink, markers, etc.
  - Prints: lithographs, silkscreen, block prints
  - Mixed Media – use of more than two mediums such as pencil, ink, watercolor, etc.
  - Computer Generated Art
  - Photography
- ***Artwork pieces entered in the competition are NOT required to be framed this year for the judging, but should not be ANY larger than 28 inches high x 28 inches wide x 4 inches deep with frame (only the winner/runner-ups are required to be framed). This includes the OUTSIDE dimensions of the frame (winner/runner-ups are REQUIRED to be framed to be hung in DC/district offices).
- ***Additionally the winning/runner-up artwork should be covered in Plexiglas. ABSOLUTELY NO GLASS ALLOWED (glass can break during shipment and possibly damage the artwork).
- Each piece CANNOT WEIGH MORE THAN 15 lbs (including the frame)
- Use of sturdy picture hangers (top Left and Right Corners) on the back of the frame is required.
- Each entry must be original in concept, design, and execution and may not violate any U.S. copyright laws. Any entry that has been copied from an existing photo (other than the student's own), painting, graphic, advertisement, or any other work produced by another person is a violation of the competition's rules and will not be accepted. Work entered must be in the original medium (not a scanned reproduction of the piece).
- The winner's artwork will hang in the Cannon Tunnel of the U.S. Capitol for the entire year and cannot be returned to the students earlier. Therefore, students should submit artwork they will not need for other purposes. Pieces that are runner-ups will be displayed in Congressman Luetkemeyer's district offices.
- Artwork must adhere to the policy of the House Office Building Commission. In accordance with this policy, exhibits depicting subjects of contemporary political controversy or a sensationalistic or gruesome nature are not allowed.

Deadlines

- Entry must be delivered to the Wentzville, Washington, or Jefferson City office by Friday, April 18, 2014 at 5pm.
- Student Information & Release Form must be signed and attached to the back of the artwork when delivered.
- The winner/runner-ups will be notified once judging has been completed.

DC Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony

- Each congressional district has the opportunity to choose a winning art piece to be hung in the U.S. Capitol. There will be a ceremony over the summer to unveil all of the winning artwork from across the country. The date is typically in the middle of June, but has not been finalized yet.
- The winner is awarded round-trip airfare to Washington, DC for the ceremony.
